

Administrative details and terms and conditions for the University of Birmingham scholarships (Updated 8 Oct 2026)

1. Value

A one-time scholarship of SGD5,500 will be awarded to eligible new students who have received an offer to study in the University of Birmingham (UoB) master's programme at SIM.

2. Eligibility Criteria

2.1 To qualify for the scholarship, applicants must meet the academic criteria specified below, as well as the English Language requirements stated on the respective programme webpages.

Programme	Academic criteria
Master of Science Financial Management	Bachelor's degree in any discipline (First Class or Upper Second-Class Honours degree) or an equivalent qualification
Master of Science International Business

2.2 The scholarship is only available to new applicants applying for admission to a University of Birmingham (UoB) master's programme at SIM.

2.3 Applicants must complete the application process and pay the application fee through the SIM Online Application System by the cut-off date listed below to be considered for the scholarship.

Programme	Intake for new applicants	Application cut-off date for the scholarship
Master of Science Financial Management	Oct 2027	1 July 2027
Master of Science International Business

2.4 Conditions under which the scholarship will not be awarded or withdrawn, under any of the following circumstances:

- The applicant is unsuccessful in securing admission to the programme.
- The applicant withdraws from the programme before the commencement of the course.
- The student withdraws from the programme at any time after the course has commenced.

2.5 Recipients who wish to decline the scholarship offer must notify SIM in writing.

3. Payment of Programme Fees and Scholarship Reimbursement

The recipient is required to make full payment of the programme fees stated in the invoice by the stipulated payment due date. Subject to the recipient meeting all scholarship eligibility requirements, SIM will reimburse the scholarship amount after full payment of the programme fees has been received. The reimbursement will be made to the recipient's Singapore bank account or an overseas bank account. All bank charges associated with reimbursement to an overseas account shall be borne by the recipient.

SIM reserves the right to withdraw or revoke the scholarship if full payment is not received by the stipulated payment due date.

4. Terms and Conditions Upon Receiving the Scholarship

The scholarship is tenable for the minimum period required to complete the programme, as stipulated by the programme requirements, and the scholarship carries no bond.

Scholarship recipients must comply with the following conditions throughout their period of study:

a) Academic Commitment

Recipients must sit for all prescribed tests and examinations and participate in all required assessments. UoB and SIM reserve the right to revoke the scholarship and require the repayment of the scholarship amount awarded should a recipient fail to demonstrate due diligence in their studies.

b) Contribution to the UoB-SIM Community

Recipients are expected to contribute actively to the UoB-SIM community, including, where appropriate, sharing their learning journey and experiences at briefings, fairs, and other outreach activities.

5. Suspension or Termination

UoB and SIM reserve the right, at their joint discretion, to suspend or terminate the scholarship, vary these Terms and Conditions, or introduce additional guidelines relating to the scholarship, provided that due notice is given to scholarship recipients.

Any amendments or additional guidelines issued shall be deemed to form part of these Terms and Conditions.

6. How to Apply

The master's scholarship application opens in November 2026 for eligible University of Birmingham (UoB) Master of Science programmes commencing in October 2027.

To be considered for the scholarship, applicants must submit all required application documents and pay the application fee in full by the deadline specified in Section 2.3.

--- The End---